

The Conspiracy

by Dr. Oren Fenton Potito

World War I was not, as generally believed, the result of only the natural interplay of the ambitions of the Great Powers and of growing nationalism. Generalities and abstractions are not sufficient to cause wars; wars are brought on by the actions of men. In both world wars, these actions were deliberately calculated to bring on war with all its misery and suffering. The purpose of those who brought on the First World War was two-fold: first, the war by its own momentum would open huge cracks in the foundation of Western Civilization by destroying the soundest values and most stable institutions in our civilization. Second, the peace conferences following the war would be used to intensify the upheaval and to provide the foundation of a world-wide empire, to be built first on the ruins of all European empires and of the Christian civilization they had spread over the entire globe, and later on the ruins of the United States. Who were these men, and what was their goal?

They were and are a tightly knit clique of Jewish conspirators who have been and are made up of, and recruited from, the very top financial, economic, educational and political levels of each country in which they operate. The ultimate goal of this Jewish conspiracy is the absolute domination of the entire world to be accomplished by the destruction of civilization through the merging of all nationalities and races into one people under one government; the abolition of all private property; the destruction of all religion except Judaism; and the abrogation of all morality. The immediate goal of each generation of these Yiddish conspirators was the reward power, wealth and fame, which they received by advancing the final goal. The makeup and purpose of the conspiracy were explicitly defined by its founder, a Jew, Adam Weishaupt, and embodied in his organization, the Order of Illuminati, founded May 1, 1776. The Illuminati was strong enough by 1789 to play a major role in planning and precipitating the French Revolution, and members of the Order held power in France for about six years openly. After 1795 the Illuminati went completely underground, and the secret of their existence became the fundamental law of the Order.

But despite the strict secrecy the conspiracy maintained, we do have a considerable amount of information about its activities between 1795 and 1917 when its principle aim, Communism erupted in Russia. A chief agent of the Illuminati, Joseph Fouché, a French Jew, was responsible for placing a member of the Order, Jean Baptiste Bernadotte, a proselyte, on the throne of Sweden. It was an agency or ally of the conspiracy, the League of Just Men, which hired Karl Marx, a Rabbi's son, whose real name was Moses Mordecai Levy, to write the Communist Manifesto which is based on the Jewish Holy Book, the Talmud. This group, which was renamed the League of Communists, was a major factor in bringing about uprisings throughout Europe in 1848. The conspiracy played a more important role in organizing the Italian Revolution, directed by the Jew who infiltrated and misled Masonry, Albert Pike, and also, the Juarezista Revolution in Mexico in the 1860's. Both the assassination of Czar Alexander II and the Haymarket Riot in Chicago were the work of related agencies of the conspiracy. In fact, throughout the last half of the Nineteenth Century, the Jewish Order of Illuminati used Communists, socialists, anarchists, and numerous other groups and subsidiaries to advance its goals and solidify its position in nearly every nation.

By 1914 the jews had sufficient power and influence to precipitate World War I. At this point it was not necessary for the Order to be able to control every action in the war. The war itself, by its very nature, served many purposes of the jews. They only needed to direct it to the desired conclusion, which they had the ability to do; and when this occurred with the armistice, they held the control of the peace conferences. The war had so weakened Russia that the jew Trotsky, whose real name was Bronstein, and a band of vicious jewish criminals, financed and directed by their yiddish brethren throughout Europe and in the United States, were able to seize power replacing the truly progressive government of Nicholas with reactionary jewish Bolshevism. The peace conference opened the way for the communization of Europe, and the League of Nations, to which it gave birth, was meant to further the goals of the conspiracy through the activities of its clique of 'illuminated' or Fabian diplomats. Although the refusal of America to join the League ruined its planned effectiveness, the League still served many useful purposes, not the least being as a forerunner of the United Nations.

World War II should have been a war and crusade against the jew communist beast, but it became a struggle between Christian countries. Hitler himself never wanted a war in the West and his great goal, as events demonstrate, was the destruction of the Soviet Union. Communism was saved and made victorious in great part because of the conspiracy's diplomatic successes in 1936. After the assassination in 1934 of King Alexander of Yugoslavia, the greatest obstacle to the Barthou-Titulescu-Benes plan to encircle Germany, the balance of power between the anti-communists and the pro-communists was thrown to the Left. The Western anti-Communist leaders had supported a quadripartite pact proposed by Mussolini which would have been a renewal of the Pact of Locarno and which was, in reality, meant for the common defense of Europe against Soviet Russia. The pact included the Western allies of World War I and Germany, and it would have established an anti-Communist core in Europe. But although all parties signed it, the treaty never came into force because it was not ratified by the jew controlled French Parliament. It was quite another arrangement which finally triumphed the jewish inspired pact of military alliance between France, Czecho-Slovakia and Soviet Russia ratified in 1936 and the major cause of the disaster to come. It introduced Russia into the mainstream of Western diplomacy, perfected the encirclement of Germany, and instead of protecting Europe from the Soviets, it protected the Soviets from Christian Germany's growing military might.

But the pact with Soviet Russia was going to be of absolutely no benefit to France or Czecho-Slovakia, and would probably never have been ratified by the French Parliament, unless a route could be found to enable the Red Army to join in any conflict that might arise between France or Czecho-Slovakia with Germany. The Christian leaders of Poland and the Baltic states stubbornly refused to permit such passage under any pretext.

The effects of the Franco-Soviet and Czecho-Soviet treaties were immediate. Germany was surrounded and desperately needed to adjust the balance of power, and Germany needed to protect itself on its western and southern borders. Therefore Germany reoccupied the Rhineland, on the basis that the Franco-Soviet alliance invalidated the Pact of Locarno. Germany proclaimed the Anschluss with Austria to the general enthusiasm of the population, and when submitted for approval to the people of Greater Germany, it was approved by 99.08% of the voters. Germany demanded the return to Greater Germany of the three and a half million Germans, which the Versailles Treaty had incorporated, after the Austrian Empire was dismembered, into Czecho-Slovakia. Contrary to popular belief, sanity won out for a moment at Munich, and after years of harassment and treachery on the part of the Jewish government in Prague, what was probably the best possible arrangement was agreed to by the Big Powers. But all was for naught; the Jews pulling the strings soon had the very men who saved Europe in 1938 destroy it in 1939. Germany had been maneuvered into a trap, which would be sprung by the hopeless Polish problem. The Polish Crisis was hopeless not because the disagreement between Germany and Poland was so great, the issue involved was chiefly a matter of border adjustments, or because of an ancient national enmity for Germany and Poland had in recent years enjoyed excellent relations. The problem was made hopeless by the intervention of Jewish controlled diplomats, who constantly advised and told the Polish not to negotiate and by Poles such as Marshal Smigly-Rydz, who threw their country into a war she could not possibly win. Germany was forced into a war against the West because the leaders of Western Europe made all other courses of action impossible. Germany did not sign the non-aggression pact with Soviet Russia in order to be free to conquer the West. The pact was an EXPEDIENT and NOTHING MORE! Its purpose was to secure Germany's rear position in order to be free to destroy Jewish communism in Russia when the time came. Hitler abhorred the idea of a two front war. It is ironic, and sad, that he had to conquer the West in order to fight the communist East. When war came, England and France did nothing to help Poland. At no moment were the solicitudes shown by the Western Powers and the vain guarantees they offered Poland motivated by any real intention to save her integrity and her independence. On the contrary, as far as the Jews were concerned, Poland was sacrificed even before the beginning of the armed conflict.

With the fall of Poland, France was released from any obligation to continue the war, which she had not even fought, and she could have reached a satisfactory settlement with Germany. But the same leaders who had pushed Poland over the brink now threw their own nation into defeat. The onslaught came on May 10, 1940 and by June 14, 1940 the war for France was over. Now Hitler began to prepare his war against Russia; he refused to first eliminate a fellow Saxon nation as England was, and did not consider another member nation of the House of Israel, the United States a threat. (Germany represents the tribe of Judah). When the Germans invaded Russia, they could have wiped communism off the map. That they failed was due to Jewish control of the governments of the West, and also, to the Jewish agents hidden high in their own government, but by far the major factor causing Germany's defeat was the listening to Satanic Jews by us here in the United States and sticking our noses into a fight which was none of our business! If we had not sent our troops and supplies to win the war for the communists, Hitler would have won and destroyed communism in the 1940's and our boys would not be dying all over the world today to please the JEWS!

The final ground work for the destruction of Germany and the victory (temporary) of Judaism was laid between the summer of 1940 and the close of 1941. At this time the German General on the Eastern front was a communist agent. Instead of welcoming the millions of anti-communist Russians who were surrendering and offering to help the Germans destroy communism, he had them taken prisoner. Unknown to Hitler, these actions were against his orders. The General's name was von Paulis. He was a JEW! How did his Jewishness escape being detected by the Nazis? Hitler made a very great mistake in believing the Jews to be a race, and because of this he thought all he had to do was have the racial background of a person checked for a number of generations and if no Jews were found in the family tree, the person was cleared. In this way many Jews escaped detection and some worked their way into important positions, unknown to Hitler. The Bible says: "As a man thinks, so is he!" The Jews are NOT A RACE! There are black Jews, yellow Jews, white Jews, etc. The Jews are a religion and must be detected by their beliefs and actions as well as their racial background. This mistake was a big factor in causing the defeat of Germany. Another example was Admiral Canaris, head of the German Intelligence Service. His real name was Meyerbeer. HE WAS A JEW! As important as all these points are, Germany would still have won the war against communism but for one thing The United States came into the war and won it for the communists. We have been paying for that mistake ever since! When the war started Stalin had some 12 million men and he massed at least four and a half million in the western frontier area, more than a million and a half men than made up the German attack forces, but the German military as usual, was far superior, as they were thousands of years ago when they led the armies of Israel against Jericho with Joshua as their commander. (The Germans are the descendants of the Tribe of Judah). Because of this fact the communists fled in every direction. Many Russian units surrendered in order to join with Hitler. It was only after the Wehrmacht was forced to refuse help from these Russians and imprisoned them on orders from von Paulis that they stopped trying to help Hitler and began fighting to their last breath. Also the Kremlin could depend on its hidden Jewish friends in Germany for information. The flow of intelligence data from various sources continued throughout the war. Soviet agent Alexander Rado, in Switzerland was able to advise Moscow of decisions of the German High Command within forty-eight hours after they were made. The Jewish source was hidden on the German General Staff.

In this light the statements of Hitler to the effect that the war was being lost by treason do not sound like the ravings of a "drug eater". He became aware that he was being lied to. For in his charges of treason, Hitler was correct: Germany's war against Russia was not lost at Stalingrad by his troops, it was lost in Berlin by Jewish spy's and German traitors. (Take note Americans, Washington is loaded with Jews and you will never win another war against the communists until you throw them out!) The war against Communist Russia was a crusade to save White Christian Civilization from destruction by Jewish communism. The men who fought and died in the struggle in the East have been condemned, partly because they lost, but the soundness of their fear of Jewish communism has been borne out by history.

World War II was brought on and concluded according to a deliberate plan developed and carried out by a conspiracy of a small, centrally directed group of Jews high in the governments of nearly every nation. That the Jews intended to deliver all of Eastern Europe to communism is made clear by their activities as the war came to a close. After Stalingrad, the possibilities of a German victory in Russia were nearly ruined, but the war was by no means over. As the German and allied armies pulled back towards the West, they desperately attempted to form a line of resistance to the Communist onslaught; once such a defensive line was formed two courses of action would become available. The first one, and the one on which Hitler based his strategy, was to hold all possible points in the East in the belief that it was only a matter of time before the United States and Britain would stop listening to the jews and come to see communism as their real enemy. Hitler would have then signed a seperate peace with the West, and with the aid of his new allies he would have mounted a great counteroffensive which would totally crush the communist army. As late as March 1945 German troops were ordered to hold, at all costs, bridgeheads across the Oder because they would be needed as launching points for the joint attack. Now you know the real reason why Hitler ordered his men to fight to the last, even in the streets of Berlin, not because he or they were crazy fanatics as the rotten jews have been telling you ever since the war ended. They were HEROES and were actually fighting for us and CHRISTIAN civilization while we were helping the KILLERS OF CHRIST!!!

Although the jews would never have allowed the Allies to consider such an arrangement, at least the Germans were thinking right even if we were not. The second possibility provided by a stabilized line of defense from the communist hordes offered to the Western powers an opportunity to save Eastern Europe even without accepting Germany as an ally. Those who fought and died to form this line of defense for us, and to permit, thereby, the penetration of Western armies deep into the East fought and died in vain, unless we do something to make up for the sins we committed Remember, ALMIGHTY GOD IS HOLDING US RESPONSIBLE, and that is why America is in such great trouble today!

The Western Powers, conforming to the pre-established plans of the jews, had decided as early as the conferences at Quebec and Teheran to allow the communist hordes to advance up to Berlin, Prague and Vienna and had consented to abandon eleven European countries as prey for the communist jewish behemoth. The Western Allies had thus refused to take advantage of this opportunity to save millions of innocent Christian peoples from brutal slavery. Instead they halted at the Elbe.

How complete was the subservience of Washington and London to the wishes of the jews become absolutely clear in February 1945. Hitler sent a message to Mihailovich, the heroic leader of the Chetniks of Yugoslavia, to be relayed to the British. Hitler offered to withdraw all German troops from the Balkans if the United States and England would agree to start occupying the abandoned area within twenty-four hours; after the West had completely occupied the Balkans, Germany would withdraw from Hungary and Czecho-Slovakia, again on the condition that the West fill the vacuum. The jew led Allies refused even to consider the proposal, telling Mihailovich to have the Germans MAKE THEIR OFFER TO THE COMMUNISTS!!!

The war ended with Germany smashed in half; occupied by the communists, with Estonia, Lithuania, Latvia, Poland, Czecho-Slovakia, Hungary, Rumania, Bulgaria, Yugoslavia and Albania under jewish rule, and with only communism victorious. Those military or civilian leaders who had opposed communism for so long were executed, imprisoned or forced into exile. Let this paper provide a stern lesson for those who today believe that they can reach an accommodation with the communists. Remember the "Liberals", the appeasers, and the non-communists, who had opposed the war against the Soviet Union, had sabotaged the war effort, and had betrayed their own country into communist-jewish hands, were among the FIRST to be victimized by the talmudic beast. They too were EXECUTED, IMPRISONED or forced into exile ... not with the knowledge that they had fought to the end against their nation's implacable enemy, the JEWS, but with the indelible stain of having helped in the defeat of their own country!

The warning is clear and, if it is not heeded, the United States too will suffer the fate it allowed to befall so many millions of their fellow Christian Israelites. But this time there will not even be a place of exile!

AMERICANS, WAKE UP AND FIGHT JEWISH COMMUNISM ... WHILE YOU STILL HAVE TIME!!!
